Camp Fire USA Illinois Prairie Council Camp

Kata Kani Philosophy

We are an outdoor summer camp offering kids a change from their fast-paced world by providing a safe, positive, diverse environment. Children gain confidence while participating in activities that promote mutual respect and sportsmanship. Camp is an experience that builds strong character and leadership skills—skills that will help campers throughout their lives. We do this through our small group sizes, experienced staff, and our dedication to enriching the lives of children.

Base Camp

For ages 5 to 9
with all the fun of crafts, games, field trips, archery, fishing, and cook-outs.

Adventure Camp

For ages 10 to 12
All the Fun of Base Camp
with an emphasis on Outdoor Adventures.

C.I.T. Program
(Counselor in Training)

For ages 13 to 15
A Progressive Training Program that emphasizes the skills needed to become a camp counselor. The curriculum includes developing skills in first aid, team work, leadership and group management. CITs will practice a variety of outdoor skills that will enhance their camp experience. Many CITs will find being a part of this program can help them with their school leadership, extra-curricular activities, and future jobs.
