

Live Auction

L-1 – Do I Hear $100? $110?

We like to start with something that will wrest your attention from the buffet, so we're starting with money!
This $100 U.S. Savings Bond, to be precise!
Courtesy of Suburban Bank & Trust

L-2 – Canadian Whiskey of the Year for 2007!

Crown Royal Cask No. 16 begins with a blend of more than 50 different aged whiskies. The blend is then placed in French oak casks, which had previously held cognac. Why 16? The postal codes for all cities in the Cognac region begin with "16," so the casks are stamped "16" to mark their authenticity and place of origin.

L-3 – What's the Best Thing about Wrigley Field?

Being there! And being there with these two tickets, since the outfield box seats are very close to the ladies' room and a snack stand, just in case that would seal the deal!
Cubs vs Dodgers game
7:05 p.m. on Wednesday, May 26,
Aisle 406, Row 5, seats 5 and 6.
Courtesy of Sue Crowell

L-4 – Outdoor Living in Chicago!

The Madison Outdoor Fire Pit is exactly what you need to warm up your patio. This self-contained fire pit keeps the flames under control with steel mesh screens. Stainless steel construction and pedestal, 360° viewing, 35" high, 33" diameter.
Courtesy of Jerry & Laurie Jones

L-5 – What a Capital Idea!

Spend one night at the InterContinental Chicago O'Hare. Then spend your three $50 gift certificates at either the River Road location of The Capital Grille, or save them to spend at one of the other locations!
Courtesy of InterContinental Chicago O'Hare and The Capital Grille

L-6 – Another Muriel Schneider Must-Have!

These twin dolls from Muriel, handmade and with handmade clothes and accessories, are celebrating national Camp Fire's centennial in their red, white and blue Camp Fire costumes, hats and all. The girl wears a one-piece Bluebird outfit, and the boy is in slacks, a white shirt and a felt vest.

L-8 – An Italian Villa?

Sorry. Not unless you count Villa Olivia Country Club.

Two certificates, each for one greens fee, 18 holes. Admission good any time Monday through Thursday, or after 4:30 p.m. on other days. (Expires July 1, 2010. No extensions. Cart not included.)

Courtesy of Villa Olivia Country Club

L-9 – A Shameless Illinois Prairie Plug!

The auction is fun, but the most fun to be had at a Camp Fire fundraiser is at the Night Golf event. Nine holes of “golf” in the dark at Western Acres Golf Course in Lombard, after a casual supper and before the memorable awards! This year it's Friday, May 15, 7:00 p.m. Buy two tickets now, and get two Mulligans and your own flashlight.

Courtesy of Camp Fire USA Illinois Prairie Council

L-10 – Start a New Tradition!

Discover the charming Crystal River Inn Bed & Breakfast, an 1853 farmstead in Waupaca, Wisconsin.

The certificate is for $75 toward any available room, but what we're really auctioning is an incredibly relaxing sojourn in a quiet but family-oriented setting. Canoeing, biking, hiking, photography, antiquing—if you can't just relax!

Courtesy of Crystal River Inn B&B

L-11 – The 2010 Olympics Are Over!

Miss the slick ski outfits, the snow-covered goggles, the trademark red mittens? Well, we have the red mittens! (Sorry, you'll have to get your own slick outfit. And your own snow.) We have two adult and one child-sized pair of mittens with the cozy lining and iconic emblems that charmed everyone at the Vancouver Olympics and Paralympics.

L-13 – Hand Me That Hand...

You've dreamed of being a doctor? See the same equipment and simulators that medical students use in their day-to-day training. Conduct brain surgery on Virtual Vince, listen to Noel's heart beat and play with SimMan and SimBaby. Maybe even see cadavers in various states of dissection.

Loyola University Stritch School of Medicine's Mike Dauzvardis, Ph.D., Professor of Anatomy, Teacher of the Year, will take you and nine of your friends on a two-hour tour of the medical school's anatomy labs and clinical skills simulation areas.

Date and time to be pre-arranged. Expires December 15, 2010.

L-14 – Go Green in Your Garden!

And save money on your water bill!

This Smartware Products 48 gallon Rain Barrel is black recycled plastic. The carbon steel bands are designed to rust, for an authentic weathered look. No cellulose to attract termites, raised spigot, raised feet, debris screen. Made in the USA.

Courtesy of Jerry & Laurie Jones

L-15 – Have a Beary Good Time!

In comfort! We don't know the dates yet, but we know Lake Michigan won't have ice floes on it when you drive by on the way to this pre-season Chicago Bears game.

(Date to be determined when schedule is available.)

Courtesy of Sue Crowell

L-16 – Was Great-Grandpa Royal—Or a Rascal?

You want to do a little climbing around in your family tree, but you just don't have the time or the experience?

Let this pro do it for you. Includes research, interviews, and a family-history report that will become a family treasure!

Courtesy of William Makely

L-17 – Night School!

Spend an evening with Terry Sullivan, raconteur, author and authority on Scotch whiskey, wine, beer, cocktails and more.

Choose one of the above topics.

Learn about the subtle variations within it. Drink in information.

Sample and compare a generous number of libations from Terry's well-stocked butler's pantry. Enjoy!

Minimum of four, additional guests negotiable, location negotiable.

L-21 – Papa Bear to Silent Auction #11

Carved with a chainsaw, we're told, from the trunk of a local tree, this 50" bear wooden mind moving into your backyard. He's even holding on to his own solar light so he can find the way.
(If he's looking for the 22" bear cub that's in the silent auction, you can always buy it for him!)

L-22 – Still Goin' Strong!

It's Chicago and the Doobie Brothers!
You (and they) were younger in the '70s, but you're all still going strong! Check it out! Two VIP box tickets to the Friday, July 16th concert at Charter One Pavilion!
Courtesy of John & Sandra Vitellaro

L-23 – Raising a Big League Batter?

Get him the Infini-tee, the world's toughest batting tee and 7-foot by 8-foot hitting and pitching net. Molded base never tips over. Tie-down strap for easy storage and transport.
Courtesy of Sharon West

L-24 – Have a Ball!

As guests of the Ball Horticultural Company, four of you will mingle with professional landscapers and growers at Ball Customer Day in West Chicago on Friday, July 30.
Tour the acres of gardens and greenhouses, and view the newest colors and varieties of flowers.
Comfortable even in the heat of July,
with lunch served in tents erected for the day,
and cold drinks nestled in ice at the entrance to each garden.
(This is a closed site, available only to Ball customers or by invitation.)

L-25 – Speaking of a Ball...

How about an autographed baseball from Chicago Cubs pitcher
Carlos Zambrano?
Courtesy of The Chicago Cubs

L-26 – And Another Ball...

Or an autographed baseball from Chicago Cubs third baseman Aramis Ramirez?

L-27 – Scotch in a Box!

Talisker, aged 10 years,
Singleton, aged 12 years,
Dalwhinnie, aged 15 years.
Three exceptionally good bottles of Scotch,
if you're aged enough to appreciate them!

L-28 – You Didn't Know a Topaz Could Be Blue?

Well, these topazes are blue, the silver is silver, and the cubic zirconia sparkles like diamonds. Altogether a beautiful necklace.

Courtesy of Merry Richards Jewelers

L-29 – They've Got Sticks & They're Going into Battle!

It's the Cubs and Sox facing each other again, and you're invited to be there, in these four premium lower-level box seats.

Chicago White Sox vs Chicago Cubs

Sunday, June 27, 1:05 p.m. (Box 129, Row 36, Seats 9, 10, 11, 12.)
